Note 1.—In making Entries in Columns 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 and 20, no Abbreviation must be used, but every word must be written out in full. Thus, for example, the word Male must not be entered as M., nor Female as F., nor Married as M., nor Single as S., nor Black as B., nor White as W., nor Day Laborer as Day Lab., nor Domestic Servant as Dom. Ser., nor Keeping House as K. H., nor Attending School as At. School, nor Cannot Read as Cannot R., nor Cannot Write as Cannot W., nor Deaf and Dumb as D. and D., nor Blind as B., nor Idiotic as Idiot., nor Insane as Ins., nor Maimed, Crippled, or Bedridden as M., C., or B., nor Epileptic as Epilep., nor Paralytic as Paral., nor Bed-ridden as B.-R.
Note 2.—Questions Nos. 14 and 15 are not to be asked in cases where an Abbreviation appears (as from above Note 1), unless it is evident that the Abbreviation is not intended.
Note 3.—Questions Nos. 14 and 15 are to be asked in cases where a person reported has been temporarily absent on the 1st June, 1880.
Note 4.—In column 9 the abbreviation for the word "do" must not be used, as Ditto Marks.

I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a correct list of the enumeration of the inhabitants of the [illegible] Precinct made by me between the 1st and 30th days of June, 1880, and that my returns have been made out from actual personal visits to each dwelling-house and family, and that the statements made to me have been carefully recorded as made, and that I have faithfully performed my duties as enumerator in accordance with the directions of the Census Office.

H. T. McWilliams
Enumerator.
2nd day of July

Dwelling-houses visited in the order of visitation: Number every dwelling-house in the order in which it is visited by the enumerator, beginning with the first dwelling-house visited in the first subdivision, and numbering consecutively each dwelling-house in every subdivision. The number should be placed on the front of the house, or on the door-post, or in some other conspicuous place.

Families visited in the order of visitation: Number every family in the order in which it is visited by the enumerator, beginning with the first family in the first dwelling-house visited, and numbering consecutively each family in every dwelling-house. The number should be placed in the column in the family line.

Column 2.—Inhabitants: Enter surname first, then the given name and middle initial, if any. Include every person living on the first day of June, 1880. Omit children born since that date. Enter each person in the family to which he belongs as a member.

Column 3.—Relation: Specify the relationship of each person to the head of the family, whether wife, son, daughter, servant, lodger, or other relative, or boarder, hired hand, clerk, etc.

Column 4.—Color: Write W for white, B for black, Mu for mulatto, Q for quadroon, C for Chinese, I for Indian, CI for civilized Indian.

Column 5.—Age: Write the age in figures. If under one year, write the number of months.

Column 6.—Married, Widowed, or Divorced: Write M for married, W for widowed, D for divorced.

Column 7.—Profession, Occupation or Trade: Write the profession, occupation or trade of each person, male and female, ten years of age and upwards. If none, leave blank.

Column 8.—Months not employed: Write the number of months during the census year (ending June 1, 1880) that the person has been unemployed.

Column 9.—Sick or disabled: Write Sick or Disabled if the person was sick or disabled on the first day of June, 1880, so as to be unable to attend to ordinary business or labor.

Column 10.—Defective mind, etc.: Write Deaf and Dumb, Blind, Idiotic, or Insane, if the person is deaf and dumb, blind, idiotic, or insane.

Column 11.—Homicidal, etc.: Write Homicidal, Epileptic, or Paralytic, if the person is homicidal, epileptic, or paralytic.

Column 12.—Disease or disability: If the person is suffering from any acute or chronic disease, specify the disease and the month when the attack commenced. If crippled, bedridden, or otherwise disabled, specify the cause of disability.

Column 13.—Maimed, crippled, etc.: Write Maimed, Crippled, Bedridden, or Otherwise Disabled, as the case may be.

Columns 14, 15, 16.—Place of Birth: Write the name of the State or Territory in the United States, or the name of the country, in which each person was born.

Note A.—In entering names of persons on this schedule, the instructions given you must be strictly followed. Commence with the name of the person who was living in the family on April 1, 1930, if any such person is living at the present time; if not, with the person living in the family on that date who now lives nearest to the present time.

Note B.—Enumerate all persons living on April 1, 1930, in accordance with the rules given you. Be sure to report every person living at the present time, whether at home or elsewhere, who was living in this family on April 1, 1930, unless he has since died.

Note C.—Be sure that no person living in this family on April 1, 1930, is reported in any other family.

Note D.—In column 7 use the following symbols: For a native white person, write the name of the State in which he was born; for a native Negro, write the name of the State in which he was born; for a native person of Chinese, Japanese, or other race, write the name of the country in which his race predominates.

Supervisor's Dist. No. 2
Enumeration Dist. No. 265

Note A.—The Census Year begins June 1, 1879, and ends May 31, 1880.

Note B.—All persons who be included in the enumeration of the inhabitants of their usual place of abode on the 1st day of June, 1880. The words "DWELLING HOUSES NUMBERED" and "FAMILIES NUMBERED" in the heading of the first column of the schedule, will be filled in as follows: Enumerators will number the dwelling houses in the order in which they are visited by them, beginning with the number next following that of the last house numbered by the enumerator who preceded them in the district. Where a dwelling house is occupied by more than one family, the families will be numbered in the order in which their names are taken. Boarders in a family will not be numbered separately. The number of the dwelling house and family will be entered in each case in the proper column, on the same line as the name of the first person belonging to the family. Persons living in hotels, boarding-houses, etc., will be numbered with the family of the proprietor or manager. Persons living alone in a house or room, or occupying rooms in a house, but not as members of a family, will be numbered as families.

Note C.—Questions from 20 to 24, inclusive, are not to be asked in regard to persons under 10 years of age.

Note 1.—In making entries in columns 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, and 25, a check mark (✓) must be put in the line of each person enumerated, corresponding with the letter "Y" at the head.

Note 2.—In answering No. 10 you must be careful to distinguish between the Profession, Occupation or Trade of each person, and the Relation to Head of Family. Thus, the Head of the Family may be a Farmer, and his Wife, Keeping House, and his Son, Farm Laborer; or the Head of the Family may be a Merchant, and his Wife, Keeping House, and his Son, Clerk in Store.

Note 3.—In answering No. 11, you must be careful to distinguish between the Months not at Work and the Months Sick or Disabled so as to be unable to attend to ordinary business or duties. Thus, a Farmer may be sick in bed for three months, but he may have been at work on his farm for the remaining nine months of the year; a Mechanic may have been at work at his trade for eight months, but he may have been unable to work for the remaining four months.

Note 4.—In answering No. 12, you must be careful to report only such persons as have been at School within the Census year (between June 1, 1879, and June 1, 1880). Children who will be six years old after June 1, 1880, will not be included. Children who were born after June 1, 1879, will be included.

Note 5.—Questions Nos. 13, 14, 15, and 16 are to be answered for persons under 10 years of age.

Note 1.—Any person who is a prisoner, a seaman, a person absent on the United States service, a merchant, sailor, or fisherman, or a soldier, sailor, or marine in the regular army or navy of the United States, must be reported at the home of his family or friends, and not where he may be temporarily sojourning or employed. Every person living on the first day of June, 1880, must be reported. Every person who died between June 1, 1880, and the date of enumeration must be omitted.

Note 2.—Under "Profession, Occupation, or Trade," the profession, occupation, or trade of each person 10 years of age and upwards must be carefully entered. Persons having no occupation must be returned as "At home," "Keeping house," "Attending school," or "No occupation," as the case may be.

Note 3.—Questions Nos. 14 and 15 are to be answered for every person who is sick or disabled so as to be unable to work on the day the enumerator visits the family, or who has been sick or disabled so as to be unable to work during any part of the census year. If such sickness or disability has continued for six months or more, it is to be returned.

Note 4.—All questions must be answered for each person. Questions which have no answer must be indicated by a dash (—).
